Don't miss a chance to learn about all that the Norwalk Public Library has to offer when it hosts an Open House from 1-5 p.m. on Jan. 7 at the Main Library, 1 Belden Ave.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Norwalk Public Library, the afternoon will showcase library programs, collections, technology, entertainment and delectable sweet treats courtesy of the Friends Cafe, capped-off with a performance by the Jim Clark Quartet at 3:30 p.m.

Stop by for a few minutes, or stay for the afternoon, to discover what's innovative, exciting and free to all, with a Norwalk Public Library card. There will be activities for children, as well as adults. Come by for a 3D printer demonstration, robotics session, or kids crafts in the Children's Room.

Throughout the afternoon, there will be book giveaways, refreshments and the library's Passport Service will be available from 1-4 p.m.

For those unable to attend, this event will be live-streamed on social media by Norwalk councilwoman Eloisa Melendez.

For information, contact Cynde Bloom Lahey, director of library information services, at 203-899-2780, ext. 15133 or clahey@norwalkpubliclibrary.org.
